

THE SAKIE IS DISMASTED. An unusual snap of Frank C. Paine's Sakie making for Oyster Bay after being dismasted last Monday by the strong wind and heavy seas that temporarily disabled five out of fourteen of the international six-meter yachts to compete in the first elimination trial held in the Sound last Monday. Sakie's accident happened just three-quarters of a mile from the finishing line. Lucich

MR. POCKOCK, OF PURLEY, an aged English postmaster, whose hobby of training birds has recently attracted much attention because of the unique methods employed and the remarkable results achieved. The veteran ornithologist is pictured here with his pet jackdaw. Gillman

"THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL," a winding, healthy, out-of-door girls, from the shore of the lake up to the mess cabin at Camp Andree, the genuinely attractive summer encampment of the Girl Scouts nestled in the Westchester Hills near Briarcliff Manor. Reynolds

A PLATE OF MA'S RICE PUDDING was the welcome treat Mrs. G. D. Richards had ready for her son Vincent when he returned to his home in Yonkers the other day after winning his second leg on the famous Meadow Club Cup in the Southampton tennis tourney. Richards, just turned twenty, was recently chosen a member of America's Davis Cup team, being the youngest tennis player ever to achieve this honor. Fotogram

SPEAKING OF ANGELS, here are a trio of life-sized ones, carved in oak, which were recently discovered in the triforium of Southwark Cathedral, England. The images are said to be 230 years old and to have stood above the organ case in the days of Queen Anne. Keystone

324 PROPOSALS IN 10 DAYS. Such is the remarkable record of Mile. Augustine Dupont, recently voted the prettiest stenog in all Paris. As a prize for her pulchritude she was awarded 10,000 francs and, among other things, a trousseau and a small car. In addition to her record number of marriage proposals, the Parisian miss has had numerous theatrical and cinema offers. Who says that beauty is not its own reward? Kudell & Herbert

"SLIM SHOULDERS" is the apt title of Irene Castle's latest film production. The famous dancer, pictured here in one of the new gowns (it looks as though she had been lowered into it) she brought back with her from Paris the other day, will grace the screen at the Capitol next week. Campbell

Right—BEACH CHIROPODY. Since the beach beauties have discarded the stocking an enterprising toe doctor, of Washington, saw an urgent need and established himself at the Tidal Basin bathing rendezvous, and, as our picture shows, is doing a splendid business in keeping the tootsies of Capital mermaids "pretty and pink." Wide World
